PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

Virginia Historical Society

AT ITS

ANNUAL MEETING

HELD IN THE

Society's Building, December 31st, 1900,

WITH THE

LIST OF OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF THE SOCIETY.

---

RICHMOND:
WM. ELLIS JONES, BOOK AND JOB PRINTER.
1900.

PROCEEDINGS
OF THE
Virginia Historical Society

IN
Annual Meeting held December 31, 1900.

---

The annual meeting of the Virginia Historical Society was held in the Society's House, Monday evening, December 31st, at 8:30 P. M.

In the absence of President Joseph Bryan, Vice-President Virginius Newton presided, and read

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

To the Members of the Virginia Historical Society:

The Executive Committee of your Society beg to submit the following as their annual report for the past year:

MEMBERSHIP.

While our membership is slightly smaller than in 1899, it is very satisfactory. After all deductions for members who have died, resigned or been dropped for non-payment of dues, we have 766 names on the roll, six less than last year, but still larger than that of any year in the history of the Society, except 1899.

FINANCES.

We are able again to report that the finances of the Society are in a gratifying condition, as the Treasurer's report for the year ending November 10, 1900, will show:

Balance on hand November 11, 1899.....	$ 481 75
--	-----------

RECEIPTS.

Dues.....	$3,358 22
Sale of Magazines .....	230 30
Sale of publications (books).....	16 00
Life members.....	50 00
Interest. ....	83 43
Avertisements .....	99 50
	<hr/>	3,837 75
		<hr/>
		4,319 20

EXPENDITURES.

General expenses.....	$ 259 29
Repairs .....	9 54
Printing .....	994 85
Postage .....	142 59
Salaries .....	1,650 00
Wages .....	240 00
Insurance.....	60 00
Permanent fund.....	300 00
	<hr/>	3,666 27
		<hr/>
Balance in bank November 11, 1900.....		$652 93

It will be observed that the receipts have been $351.90 less than in 1899, an amount which is almost entirely accounted for by the difference in the sales of magazines and publications. In 1899 several libraries purchased entire sets of our publications and magazines, and as a result, most of the large libraries of the country now have full sets of both.

On the other hand our expenditures were less in 1900 than in 1899. We have at the end of this fiscal year a balance of $652.93, against $481.75 last year. At the December meeting of the Committee $100 more was added to the permanent fund, thus making an addition of $400 during the year 1900. The permanent fund now consists of $3,100.00 on deposit in the State Bank of Virginia, and $100 in Virginia State 3 per cent. bonds. We still hold in bank $200 belonging to the publication fund.

In this connection the Committee would urge on members prompt payment of dues. Under the regulations of the Society dues are payable in advance. If this were done the officers of the Society would be saved time, which could be profitably employed for other purposes of the Society; and the Society itself would be saved a considerable expense in postage, while the Executive Committee, knowing what the income of the Society was, would be able to make use of it in binding, purchase of books, &c., to an extent which they could not do if the payments were slow or doubtful. This subject is now referred to because at the conclusion of the fiscal year, there were in spite of diligent effort to collect, several hundred dollars due from members.

ADDITIONS TO THE LIBRARY.

Of books and pamphlets, 603 were added to the library since our last report—a considerable increase over the preceding year.

Among the works relating in whole or in part to Virginia history, antiquities and genealogy, which have been acquired during the year, were:

Early Settlers of Alabama. By Mrs. E. S. B. Stubbs.

The Overwharton (Stafford county, Va.) Parish Register, 1720–1760. Edited by W. F. Boogher.

The End of an Era. By John S. Wise. Boston, 1900.

The Thomas Book. By L. B. Thomas. N. Y., 1896.

Historical Sketches and Reminiscences of An Octogenarian. By T. L. Preston. Richmond, 1900.

The Reprint of Hariot's Briefe and True Relation, and a Life of Hariot. By Henry Stevens. London, 1900.

Claiborne Pedigree. Compiled by G. M. Claiborne. Lynchburg, 1900.

The Lindsays of America. By Margaret Isabella Lindsay. Albany, 1889.

Memorials of the Quisenberry Family in Germany, England and America. By A. M. Quisenberry. Washington, D. C., 1900.

Lynchburg and Its People. By W. Asbury Christian. Lynchburg, Va., 1900.

A Hundred Years of Richmond Methodism. Edited by E. L. Pell. Richmond, Va., 1900.

Among the gifts and loans should be noticed:

1. Autograph of poem: "The Window Panes at Brandon," by John R. Thompson. Presented by Mrs. Virginia L. Pleasants, Richmond, Va.

2. Engraved portrait of Hon. Richard W. Thompson, of Indiana; and a photographic copy of engraving of "Fort Harrison in 1812," both presented by Mrs. Lidia W. Merrill, Terre Haute, Ind.

3. Autograph letter of Peyton Randolph, President of Congress. Presented by Miss Lucy L. Temple, Richmond, Va.

4. Examples (mounted and framed) of stamps issued under the famous English Stamp Act. These have a label stating they were given in 1856 by the Pennsylvania Historical Society to the Virginia Historical Society, but had long disappeared from the collection of this Society. They were restored to this Society by Mrs. Mann S. Valentine, Richmond, Va., who purchased them from a dealer in curios.

5. A very handsome sword presented to Captain (afterwards General) George H. Thomas, U. S. A., by citizens of Southampton county, Va. (his native county), for gallantry in the Mexican War. Presented by Misses Judith E., and Fanny C. Thomas, of Southampton county, sisters of the late General Thomas.

6. A considerable collection of books, pamphlets, &c., chiefly relating to Virginia; formerly part of the library of Judge W.

W. Crump, deceased. Presented by Mr. Beverley T. Crump, Richmond, Va.

7. A very large and valuable collection of manuscripts relating to the Parke, Custis, Washington and Lee families. Deposited with the Society by General G. W. C. Lee, Fairfax county, Va.

8. Engraved portraits of Joseph C., William H., and Nicholas Cabell. Presented by J. Alston Cabell, Richmond, Va.

9. A Virginia note (currency) of the Revolutionary period. Presented by Miss Bessie Hoge, Richmond, Va.

10. A photograph of the Communion Service, Prayer Book, &c., of St. John's Church, Hampton, Va., including the cup, with hall-mark of 1618, which was presented to "St. Mary's Church in Smith's Hundred, in Virginia," by Mrs. Mary Robinson in 1619. Presented by Rev. C. Braxton Bryan.

11. A very large and valuable collection of books, pamphlets, newspapers, maps, manuscripts, &c., presented by Major Powhatan Ellis, Richmond, Va. These include much of interest in regard to State and local history, very many reports of various Virginia railroads for many years past, a number of Richmond directories between 1856 and 1891, &c. The maps, newspapers and manuscripts are also of considerable value, the latter including some of the papers of Hon. Powhatan Ellis, United States Senator and Governor of Mississippi.

12. The old bell of St. John's Church, Richmond, Va., which hung on that building when the Convention of March, 1775, assembled there, and where Patrick Henry made his most famous speech. This bell was sold, about 1820, to Major Redd, of Henry county, and has been presented to the Society by his relative, Mrs. C. B. Bryant, of Martinsville, Henry county.

Others to whom thanks are due for gifts are: Mrs. Elizabeth Saunders Blair Stubbs, New Orleans, La.; Dr. Joseph Lyons Miller, Pt. Pleasant, West Virginia; Dr. A. C. Cleborne, U. S. N.; Mr. Worthington C. Ford, Boston; Colonel Gracey Childers, Tenn.; Mr. W. H. Jennings, Columbus, Ohio; Prof. J. F. Jameson, Mrs. Champe Fitzhugh Thornton, Richmond; Dr. W. R. Whitehead, Denver, Col.; Dr. T. A. Emmett, New York; Messrs. J. W. Hunter, Norfolk, Va.; F. W. Mann, Jas. Warrington, Philadelphia, Pa.; Samuel Troth, Maryland; Lucien Carr, Barnwell Rhett Heyward, Albany, N. Y.; Phil. E. Chappell, Kansas City, Mo.; L. B. Thomas, D. D.; G. M. Claiborne, Eugene C. Massie, Richmond; Albert Matthews, Cambridge, Mass.; Daniel Grinnan, Richmond; Anderson C. Quisenberry, Washington, D. C.; Henry E. Gifford and Miss Mary E. R. Boyd, Waukesha, Wis.

CATALOGUE OF MANUSCRIPTS.

The printing of a catalogue of the manuscripts in the collection of the Society has commenced, and at the time this report is made, has been completed as far as the beginning of the letter "M." This will be finished early in 1901, and will be then distributed to our members. This catalogue will for the first time make a general use of our manuscripts practicable.

In this connection it should be stated that for the protection of the manuscripts, which will now doubtless be much more used, the Executive Committee has adopted a rule that no one shall have access to the manuscripts or Colonial newspapers except members, and persons introduced, in writing, by members.

In addition to reporting in regard to the catalogue of manuscripts, the Publication Committee has only to state that the general plan of the Magazine will be adhered to during the coming year.

PAMPHLETS.

There has been for a long time a large number of valuable pamphlets in our library, which, from the manner in which they have been stowed away, have been difficult to use. These have now been arranged, and a special card catalogue of them prepared.

DEATHS.

The Society has again this year to record the death of several distinguished members.

Hon. William Wirt Henry, an honorary member and Ex-President of the Society.

The following annual members died:

H. E. C. Baskervill, Richmond, Va.

Mrs. Betsy T. Beckner, Winchester, Ky.

Hon. James H. Brown, Charleston, W. Va.

W. O. Hughart, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Robert B. Munford, Richmond, Va.

Marshall Parks, Norfolk, Va.

Hunter H. McGuire, M. D., Richmond, Va.

Charles Dudley Warner, Hartford, Conn.

Hon. William L. Wilson, Lexington, Va.

The report was, on motion, received, and, as usual, ordered to be printed in the Magazine.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The next business was the election of officers for the ensuing year.

The chairman appointed Messrs. C. V. Meredith, F. P. Brent and J. S. Moore, a committee to present nominations.

The committee reported the following names:

President—Joseph Bryan.

Vice-Presidents—J. L. M. Curry, Washington, D. C.; Archer Anderson, Richmond, Va., and Virginius Newton, Richmond, Va.

Corresponding Secretary and Librarian—William G. Stanard, Richmond, Va.

Recording Secretary—David C. Richardson, Richmond, Va.

Treasurer—Robert T. Brooke, Richmond, Va.

Executive Committee—Lyon G. Tyler, Williamsburg, Va.; E. V. Valentine, Richmond, Va.; C. V. Meredith, Richmond, Va.; A. C. Gordon, Staunton, Va.; B. B. Munford, Richmond, Va.; W. Gordon McCabe, Richmond, Va.; Wm. H. Palmer, Richmond, Va.; Edward Wilson James, Norfolk, Va.; Charles W. Kent, University of Virginia; J. A. C. Chandler, Richmond, Va., and S. S. P. Patteson, Richmond, Va.

The gentlemen named were unanimously elected.

THE ST. JOHN'S BELL.

Mr. B. B. Munford then offered resolutions thanking Mrs. C. B. Bryant, of Martinsville, Henry county, Va., for her recent gift to the Society of the old bell of St. John's Church in this city. Mr. Munford reviewed the history of the bell and spoke of its historic associations in connection with the Virginia Convention of March, 1775, which was held in the church, and of Patrick Henry's famous speech then delivered.

At the conclusion of Mr. Munford's remarks, the resolutions were adopted. They are as follows:

Resolved, That we tender the grateful thanks of this Society to Mrs. C. B. Bryant, of Martinsville, Va., for her recent gift of the ancient and historic bell of St. John's Church, Richmond, Va.—a bell which not only was used to call together the worshipers in the first church built within the limits of the present city; but to whose voice responded the patriots who, in March, 1775, assembled in those walls to provide measures to defend and perpetuate the liberties of our country, and whose tones rang out clear and strong, proclaiming "liberty throughout all the land, unto all the inhabitants thereof," on the day when Henry, with his immortal words, "Give me liberty, or give me death," began the Revolutionary war in Virginia.

Resolved also, That the bell be given a prominent place in the rooms of our building, accompanied by an inscription stating its history and the name of the donor, and that these resolutions be spread on our minutes, and published with the proceedings of this meeting.

[In the April number of our Magazine the history of this bell will be published.]

ORIGIN OF THE NAME NEWPORT NEWS.

The Chairman next introduced President Lyon G. Tyler, of William and Mary College, who read a valuable and interesting paper on the origin of the name Newport News. He gave a careful study of the matter and produced strong evidence to prove that Captain Christopher Newport had nothing to do with the name, but that it was originally New Port Nuce, the latter name being derived from Sir William and Captain Thomas Nuce, who were prominent settlers of the vicinity.

At the conclusion of President Tyler's paper, the Chairman expressed his sense of the importance and value of such historical addresses, papers and discussions at our annual meetings, and stating that no member of the Society had contributed more in this way than President Tyler, said that he should be glad to receive a motion for a vote of thanks to the latter gentleman for the paper he had just read.

A vote of thanks was moved and adopted.

THE VALUE OF THE SOCIETY'S COLLECTIONS.

The Corresponding Secretary then stated that there were a few additional words he wished to say to the audience. He explained the various disappointments the Society had experienced for some years past in obtaining an annual address, and called attention to the fact that the great value and interest of our collections was so little known in Richmond, and enumerated briefly the most important portraits, books, manuscripts and historic relics. During the coming year a complete list of these would be prepared, and would be printed and distributed to members as soon as practicable.

Then, on motion, the meeting adjourned.
